GALLEGO MILLS TO BE SOLD.

This Valuable Property to Be Offered at Auction To-Morrow.

The Galiego Mills property will be of-fered for sale to-morrow at noon. It is seldom that such valuable and desirable property is soid at auction, and there is almost certain to be many bidders from the North and West, as well as perhaps among Richmond investors.

The sale will be made for the trustees,
Messrs. T. H. Ellett and John Pickrell, by the real estate firms of J. B. Elam & Co., Pollard & Bagby, and J. Thompson Brown & Co. The sale embraces the famous Gallego flour mill, one of the most imposing buildings in the city, with its complete equipment of machinery for manufacturing flour and meal, its cele-brated brands, and its unsurpassed water-power; and, also, the large, fourand the appropriation was made mills.

It is from six to eight stories high, of pressed brick, with slate roof, and presents a most imposing and beau-tiful appearance. The machinery is of the most substantial character. Recently a complete cornmeal outfit, capable of grinding 2,500 bushels dafly, and a new grinding 2,500 bushels daily, and a new roller-mill, capable of turning out 500 bar-rels of flour per day, have been added to the plant. The daily capacity of the mill in flour is 1,600 barrels; in meal, 2,500 bushels. In comparatively recent years over $10,000 has been spent in machinery and other improvements.
